JUDGMENT

This is an election petition filed by Yeshwant Sitaram Dessai and Dr. Jorge Ataide Lobo, against the respondents, for setting aside their election to the Legislative Assembly, held on the 11th March, 1972, on the various grounds mentioned in the petition.

2. The Respondents raised 10 preliminary issues. The 1st, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th issues present no difficulty and I shall dispose them of forthwith. The other 4 are interconnected and raise some questions of law which will require some further arguments.

3. The first issue is whether the petition is bad for non-compliance of Section 117 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 (hereinafter called "the Act") sub-section (1) of which reads as follows:—

"S.117(1):— At the time of presenting an election petition, the petitioner shall deposit in the High Court in accordance with the rules of the High Court a sum of two thousand rupees as security for the costs of the petition".

It is contended by Dr. Lobo that section 117 requires that the deposit should be made by the petitioner and not by each petitioner. The deposit is for the security of costs of the petition and since there is one petition only the deposit should be only Rs. 2000/-. This, Dr. Lobo argues, is evident from the fact that joint petitions are allowed to be filed by two or by some candidates or by some candidates together. I agree with Shri Lobo. It has been held in Marut Rao Bhaurao

v. Gulabrao Dadasaheb (5, E.L.R. 303) that a joint election petition by more than one petitioner is maintainable, and that sections 110 and 112 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, clearly envisage such joint petitions and that therefore a security deposit of Rs. 1000/- (in our case Rs. 2000/-) is sufficient for a joint petition. A similar finding was given by the Election Tribunal of Allahabad in Deo Chanu v. Vashist Narain (VI 1952 E.L.R. 138). My answer to the first issue, is therefore in the negative.

4. Issue 7 being dependent on issue 6 I shall decide together both the issues which run as follows:—

"Issue 6:— Whether the affidavits filed by the petitioners in support of the allegations of corrupt practices are not in conformity with the legal requirements.

Issue 7:— If so, whether the said affidavit should be rejected and the petition should not be entertained". The contention of the respondents is that the petitioners have not disclosed grounds and sources of the petitioners information on which the affidavits are based.

5. The proviso to sub-section (1) of Section 83 of the Act lays down that where the petitioner alleges any corrupt practice, the petition shall also be accompanied by an affidavit in the prescribed form in support of the allegation of such corrupt practice and the particulars thereof. Rule 94(A) of the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961, provides that the affidavit referred to in the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 83 shall be sworn before a magistrate of the first class or a notary or a commissioner of oaths and shall be in Form 25, and form 25 reads as follows:—

Form 25

Affidavit

(See Rule 94A)

I, the petitioner in the accompanying election petition calling in question the election of Shri/Shrimati (respondent No. in the said petition) make solemn affirmation/oath and say—

- (a) that the statements made in paragraphs of the accompanying election petition about the commission of the corrupt practice of and the particulars of such corrupt practice mentioned in paragraphs of the Schedule annexed thereto are true to my knowledge;
- (b) that the statements made in paragraph of the said petition about the commission of the corrupt practice of and the particulars of such corrupt practice given in paragraphs of the said petition and in paragraphs of the Schedule annexed thereto are true to my information;
- (c)
- (d)
- etc.

Signature of deponent.

Solemnly affirmed/sworn by Shri/Shrimati ... at this ... day of ... 196

Before me.

Magistrate of the first class/
Notary/Commissioner of Oaths."

6. The affidavits must, therefore, be in accordance with form 25. From the provisions quoted in the last preceding paragraph including the form, it is evident that there is no requirement that the petitioner must disclose the grounds and sources of information when a statement is made on the basis of sources of information. Order XIX of the Civil Procedure Code which deals with affidavits also does not require that the sources of information must be disclosed when an affidavit is made on the basis of information received by the person making the affidavit. It is true that rules have been framed by this Court for various purposes including rules in regard to election petition under the Representation of the People Act, 1951. Rules made by this Court for other purposes provide that whenever an affidavit is made on the basis of information the sources of information must be disclosed, but the rules made in regard to election petition do not contain such requirement. Further, Affidavits under Order 19 of C. P. C. are made for proving facts whereas affidavits under proviso to sec. 83(1) are to be made in support of the petition. Election petitions are unknown to law and the only rules applicable to election petitions are the Registration of Electors Rules, 1960, the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961 and the Rules made by this Court in regard to Election Petition. None of these Rules contain any provision requiring that the source of information must be disclosed when an affidavit is made on the basis of information.

7. I, therefore, answer the issue No. 6 in the negative, i.e., against the respondents and as a corollary I answer the issue No. 7 in the negative.

8. Interconnected also are issues Nos. 8 and 9, which read as follows:—

Issue 8:— Whether material facts as required under sec. 83 of the Representation of the Peoples Act, 1951 are set out in respect of any of the corrupt practices alleged in the petition;

Issue 9:— If so, whether the petition should be dismissed".

A vague attempt has been made by Learned Counsel for the respondents to prove that material particulars were not furnished. In their written statements, the respondents have not categorically stated that such material particulars, have not been furnished. They have confined themselves to state that "in the absence of the concise statements of material facts and/or full particulars regarding the alleged corrupt practice it is impossible for this respondent to know and understand what charges has been made against this respondent and what case he has to meet". It is not clearly stated whether they could not meet the case, because of the petitioners failure to furnish material facts or full particulars regarding corrupt practices. Besides, Section 83 requires the petitioners to give only a "concise" statement of the facts on which the petitioners rely. I have read the petition and I am satisfied that material facts on which the petitioners rely have been stated in a concise form. My answer to the issue No. 8 is in the affirmative and consequently, the one to issue No. 9 in the negative.

9. The last of the preliminary issues is:—

Issue 10:— If yes, whether full particulars are disclosed in respect of corrupt practices alleged in the petition".

10. It is contended by Shri Dias, Learned advocate for the respondents, that no particulars are mentioned in ground VII. It is mentioned in ground VII that the respondents hired or procured vehicles for the free conveyance of electors to and from the polling stations and some instances of such hiring were given in the said ground. It cannot, therefore, be said that no particulars are mentioned in ground VII. It is next argued by Shri Dias that nothing is said in the petition, regarding corrupt practices mentioned in grounds VIII and IX. In ground VIII the petitioners have stated "that corrupt practice was committed by respondents or by agents with their consent as during the election campaign between the 1st and the 10th March 1972 electors were made to swear on coconuts that they would cast their votes for each of the respondents." The contention of the respondents, therefore, is not correct. Ground No. IX is not a ground regarding corrupt practice and therefore no affidavit need be given regarding that ground. Lastly, it is argued by Shri Dias that regarding ground No. VII the petitioners have not stated in their affidavit which part of that ground regarding corrupt was true according to their own knowledge and which was true according to their information. The petitioners have stated at paragraph (c) of their affidavit which relates to ground No. VII, as follows:—

"That the statements made in paragraph 4 (VII) (ground VII) of the said petition about the commission of the corrupt practice of hiring or procuring of vehicles and the particulars of such corrupt practice mentioned in paragraphs 4 (VII) of the same petition are in part true to my knowledge and the remainder true to my information."

and ground VII reads as follows:—

"That corrupt practice was committed by each of the respondents or with consent in various constituencies by way of hiring or procuring of vehicles for the free conveyance of electors to and from the polling stations. For example in Mandrem constituency vehicles Nos. GDT 4780 and GDT 3864 and in Panjim Constituency vehicle No. GDA 3546; and in the constituencies of Marmagoa and Mapusa vehicles personally owned by the respective returned candidates, respondents in this petition, were used on 11-3-1972 for this purposes.

The inescapable conclusion is that the example that the petitioners gave regarding the hiring or procuring of vehicles for the free conveyance of electors to and from the polling stations are facts within their own knowledge, and the rest of the hirings were stated on information.

11. In addition to the reasons given by me above it must be noted that the particulars to be given must be as full as possible.

12. My answer to this issue is in the affirmative.

13. I shall now come to the issues Nos. 2, 3, 4 and 5.

They are all interconnected and I will consider them together. The main point in these four issues is, what is the meaning of the word «election» occurring in Sec. 81 of the Act. According to Dr. Lobo, Learned Advocate for the petitioners, election means, as defined in Section 2(1)(d) of the Act, an election to fill a seat or seats of either House of Parliament or in the House or either House of the Legislature and that, therefore an election is an election to parliament or Assembly and not an election to a constituency. I agree with Dr. Lobo that an election when defined in terms of the body to which it relates is an election as defined in section 2(1)(d). I also agree with him, for obvious reasons, that an election cannot mean an election «to» a constituency. But, it seems to me, that when an election is defined in relation to the place regarding which it is conducted an election means an election «from» or «in» a constituency. An election can be an election «to» fill seats in parliament or Assembly and at the same time be an election to choose «from» a constituency persons to fill those seats. An election to choose members to Parliament or Assembly must necessarily be also an election choose such members from various constituencies. An election is an election to fill a seat or seats in either House of Parliament or in the House or either House of the Legislature of the State, «from» a particular constituency. When defined on relation to the place regarding which the process of election takes place an election is the process of choosing a candidate to represent a particular constituency in parliament or Legislative Assembly.

14. Section 81 provides that «any» election may be called in question by an election petition. Form the word «any» it is obvious that an election that takes place to elect members of parliament or Assembly, the election is constituted of various elections taking place in each constituency for the purpose of electing a member of Parliament or Assembly representing that Constituency. The scheme of the Act and the procedure followed in the election to fill seats in Parliament or Assembly show that the several processes followed regarding various constituencies are separately conducted even though they may be conducted simultaneously. Thus a separate list of candidates is prepared, a separate roll of electors is prepared, separate symbols are assigned, a separate set of election officers are appointed to different constituencies to conduct the election in constituencies and the process of electing a candidate in a particular constituency is not mixed up with the process of electing a candidate in another constituency. The causes of action in an election petition are the qualifications of the candidates to be chosen, the corrupt practices committed by the candidates, the nomination improperly filed by the candidates, the improper acceptance of any nomination, the corrupt practices committed in the interest of the candidates, the improper reception, refusal or rejection of any vote, the non-compliance with the provisions of the Constitution or of the Act or of any rules or orders made under the Act and so on. All these causes of action are relatable to the electoral process that takes place in each of the constituencies. Since the process conducted in each constituency is separately carried on, the cause of action in one constituency cannot form the ground of an election petition regarding another constituency. Besides, if the words «any election» occurring in Sec. 81, referred to the entirety of the election held for filling up seats in Parliament or Assembly then no election petition could possible be filed unless any of the causes of action mentioned above had arisen in respect of all the candidates to the whole election.

15. If an election for the purpose of an election petition had meant the entirety of electoral processes held to fill seats in Parliament or Assembly, the annulment by means of an election petition of an election held in constituency would not be possible or in other words the annulment of an electoral process in one constituency would mean the annulment of the entire election to Parliament or to the Assembly. I am unable to agree with Dr. Lobo that whilst ascertaining the meaning of the words «any election» occurring in section 81 of the Act, we have to take into consideration the body to which the elections are to be held and not the constituency from which the election is to be held.

16. Of relevance are also the words «any candidate at such election» occurring in section 81. The words «any candidate» used in that phrase have to be used in the same sense as the words «any elector» are used in that section. According to the argument of Dr. Lobo the words «any candidate» would mean any candidate in any constituency. It would follow from this that a candidate in constituency A could be entitled to file an election petition in constituency B though he was neither candidate nor an elector in constituency B. This proposition finds favour with Dr. Lobo. Even if we stretch the meaning of the word «elector» occurring in Section 81, to include any elector in any constituency it seems to me that the meaning of the words «any candidate» cannot be stretched to that length, because a candidate essentially and necessarily means a candidate in the constituency and not a candidate in the entire process of election to Parliament or Assembly.

17. Dr. Lobo argues that according to the Explanation to section 81 the word «elector» means a person who was entitled to vote at the election to which the election petition relates. His contention is that the word «election» means an election to Parliament or Assembly, because according to him the election can only relate to the parliament or Assembly. His conclusion is that the word «elector» occurring in section 81 means all the electors that can vote in the entire election to Parliament or Assembly and that the word «election» is not restricted to a constituency. I do not see how such an inference can be drawn. The word «election» in the Explanation might mean also an election from a particular constituency because an election is related not only to the Parliament or Assembly, but also to the constituency. When the question arises as to whether the election is «to» one of these bodies it relates to Parliament or Assembly. But when the question is as to whether the election is to a seat «from» a particular constituency, the election relates to the constituency. This reasoning of mine gets support from the definition of the word «elector» given in section 2(1)(e) which reads, «elector in relation to a constituency, means a person whose name is entered in the electoral roll of that constituency».

18. The view taken by me regarding the meaning of the words «election», «candidate» and «elector» occurring in section 81(1) is fortified by the decisions of superior Courts which I shall presently consider.

19. The question whether the expression «any other candidate» in section 82(b) of the Act included candidates of the constituency to which the election petition did not relate, came for consideration in Nardev v. Joti Saroop (A.I.R. 1964, All. 83). It was held that it included any other candidates of a particular constituency to which the election petition related and not from any other constituency. The Learned Judges observed «in the matter of election petitions parliament made a clear distinction between the candidates and electors of the different constituencies. Section 81, for example, unmistakably goes to show that the intention of Parliament clearly was to confine the presentation of election petitions to only the candidates and electors of the constituency to which the petition related».

20. Reliance was placed by Shri Dias also on P. R. Francis v. A. V. Aryian (T.I.R. 1968, Kerala, 252) and Shri Lobo's reply was that the observations made by the High Court in that case were obiter dicta. I am unable to agree with Shri Lobo. In that case the petitioner challenged the «entire» election conducted in the whole of the State and prayed that it be set aside, on the ground that the simultaneous issue of two ballot papers, one for the Assembly and the other for the Parliament, caused confusion in the voters and wrong marking of their ballots and that this novel method which was adopted in Kerala alone was discriminatory. This contention was raised by the petitioner in issue No. 12, but it appears that due to oversight the Learned Judge whilst considering that issue at paragraph 26 of the judgment referred to the issue as issue No. 14. The issue was decided against the petitioners on two counts, the first was that the simultaneous distribution of ballot papers affords no ground to challenge the election and the second, that under section 81 of the Act, an election petition calling in question any election may be presented by any candidate at such election or any elector and section 80 prohibits an election being called in question except by an election petition presented in accordance with section 81; that «election» in this context means not the general election or the entirety of the elections held in the State, but one election held in one constituency and that, therefore, a challenge to the entirety of elections held in the State is within the taboo of section 80 of the Act.

21. Finally, I come to the decision of the Supreme Court in Kanta Kathuria v. Manak Chand Surana, reported at A. I. R. 1970, S.C. 694, which approved the decision in A. I. R. 1964, All. 83. The Learned Judges observed, as regards the supplementary point that the petition was bad for non-joinder of Mr. Mathura Das Mathur against whom corrupt practices were alleged in the petition, we are of opinion that S. 82 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951, in its Cl. (b) speaks of candidates at the same election and not persons who are candidates at other elections. As Mr. Mathur was candidate from another constituency he need not have been made a party here. In this context the words «any other candidate» plainly mean a candidate in the election for the constituency, which is the subject matter of the petition».

22. I shall now consider the authorities relied upon by Dr. Lobo in support of his contentions. A. I. R. 1950, Cal. 479, A. I. R. 1951, Patna, 346, A. I. R. 1958, Cal. 710, A. I. R. 1972, All. 41 and A. I. R. 1972, Cal. 313, are all of them on issue No. 2 and are not relevant in view of the finding on issues Nos. 4 and 5 and of the order that I propose to pass on that issue. A. I. R. 1959 All. 54 has no bearing at all on the case. In Dr. V. K. John v. Vasantha Pai (1955-56(XI), E.L.R. 278), the Learned Judge observed that the citizens at large have an interest in seeing and they are justified in insisting that elections are free and not vitiated by corrupt or illegal practices. The Learned Judge did not state that by the words «citizens at large» he meant every citizen of the country or every elector. He did not state what he meant by the «citizens at large». The correct meaning of these words can be found from Inamati Mallapa Basappa v. Desai Basavaraj Ayyapa (A. I. R. 1958, S. C. 698) on which Dr. Lobo himself relies. It was held in that case, following A. I. R. 1958, S. C. 687 and relying on A. I. R. 1954, S. C. 210, that an election petition is not a suit between two persons, but is a proceeding in which the constituency itself is the principal party interested. They further held that it is this interest of the constituency as a whole which invests the proceedings before the Election Tribunals with a characteristic of their own. It is evident from the finding of the Supreme Court that the words «citizens at large» means the citizens at large in a constituency, who are interested in the election, i.e. the electors in a constituency.

23. In view of the foregoing observations my answers to the 4 issues are as follows:—

24. Issue No. 2.— In view of the findings which I propose to give regarding issues Nos. 4 and 5, the answer to this issue is in the affirmative against all the respondents except respondent No. 9.

25. Issue No. 3.— It is averred by the Petitioners that the election results were declared on the 12th and 13th March, 1972. In reply, the various respondents have stated that the elections of respondents Nos. 1, 2, 7, 10, 11, 14, and 15 were declared on the 12th March and those of Nos. 4 and 18 on the 13th March, 1972. The period limitation for filing an election petition is 45 days. The petition was filed on 27-4-72 i.e. 46 days after the election of respondents Nos. 1, 2, 7, 10, 11, 14 and 15 were declared and 45 days after the election of respondent Nos. 4 and 18 were declared. My answer to the issue is, therefore, in the affirmative as regards respondents Nos. 1, 2, 7, 10, 11, 14 and 15 and in the negative as regards respondents Nos. 4 and 18.

26. Issue No. 4.— Petitioner No. 1 was an elector and a candidate in the constituency of respondent No. 9 and was neither an elector nor a voter in the constituencies of the remaining respondents. My answer to the issue is, therefore, in the negative as regards respondent No. 9 and the affirmative as regards the remaining respondents.

27. Issue No. 5:—Petitioner No. 2 was a candidate in the constituency of respondent No. 18. Petitioner No. 2 was entitled to file a petition against respondent No. 18. Therefore, my answer to the issue is in the negative as regards the respondent No. 18 and in the affirmative as regards the respondents Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17.

28. One single petition could not be filed in respect of the two elections of Respondents Nos. 9 and 18. At the time of the presentation of the petition the sum of Rs. 2000/- only was deposited in Court by way of security under the provision of sec. 117 of the Act. The provisions of this section are mandatory and the security must be deposited at the time of the presentation of the petition and not later. Two separate election petitions could be filed, one by Petitioners Nos. 1 and 2 against respondent No. 9 and another by petitioner No. 2 against the respondent No. 18. It is not possible to strike the name of petitioner No. 1 when his petition against respondent No. 9 is maintainable. Neither is it possible to strike the name of petitioner No. 2 because he was entitled to file a petition against respondents Nos. 9 and 18. Without striking the name of any of the petitioners I hold that the petition could validly be maintained by both the petitioners against the respondent No. 9.

29. In the circumstances the petition is not maintainable against respondents Nos. 1 to 8 and 10 to 18 and I pass the following order.

Order

The election petition is dismissed as regards respondents Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17 and 18. The trial shall proceed in respect of respondent No. 9.
